

Source: Richard Weller, Archdeaconry Court of Canterbury vol.59 folio 42, Probate 15 Jul 1607

Elizabeth Weller of Cranbrook nee Dence, will dated 28 February 1606/07

To be buried in the parish church of Cranbrook. [buried 3 Mar 1606/7]

Executor: my son Alexander Cowchman.

Overseer: my brother William Weller, he to receive 10 shillings for his pains.

To my three daughters: Agnes Baseden, Elizabeth Couchman, and Catherine Dentwood, all the chests in the house where my son Richard Weller now dwells, with the money and goods within them. Also to my three daughters, all that is of mine in the house of my son Alexander Cowchman. To my said three daughters, £100 which my son Richard Weller owes me, and also £10 which my son Stephen Weller owes me. To my three daughters and my son Richard, all my pewter, equally divided among them.

To my son Richard Weller, all the wood-work household stuff that I have in his house, except the chests given away above. Also to him a featherbed and its bedding, my carpet, my brand-irons in his parlor, and two woollen coverlets.

To my brother William Weller, a cloak.

To my son Dence Weller, 10 shillings.

To my son Stephen Weller, 10 shillings.

To my son John Weller, 10 shillings.

To my son Alexander Weller, 10 shillings.

All the goods bequeathed to my daughter Catherine Denwood shall be sold and the cash given to her children after the decease of my daughter Catherine and her husband Francis Denwood. And similarly for the bequests to my daughter Elizabeth Cowchman and her husband Alexander COUCHMAN, and to my daughter Agnes Baseden and her husband Thomas Baseden.

Witnesses: John Weller and Stephen Weller.

Inventory (PRC 10/35/127) taken 16 Mar 1606/7 by William Weller of Biddenden, William Hartredge & George Martin of Cranbrook.

Total was £227 2s 5d (included a lot of cloth).