

Will (summary) of Richard Hovenden of Cranbrook 1587

Prerogative Court of Canterbury, Doctors' Commons

Will made 27 September 1587, probate 26 August 1598

My wife Alice.

My son William, executor, to whom my house called Collins Place, and lands in Cranbrook and Frittenden.

My son Richard HOVENDEN lands in parish of Rowlinden (Rolvenden?).

My son Samuel HOVENDEN, under age, to whom lands in Benenden and Biddenden.

My daughter Mary HOVENDEN.

My wood at Comden's Hill.

Richard BATTERSTE (under age), son of Haslyn BATTERSTE by my daughter Anne.

My two sisters, Anne wife of Henry HENLEY and Sylvester wife of Roboam TAYLOR.

Witness: William PLOMMER.

Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica' Vol 1 New Series London 1874 Page 249

The will must have been revised after 1587 because Richard Batherst was not born until 1592